Submit Incomplete Compilation
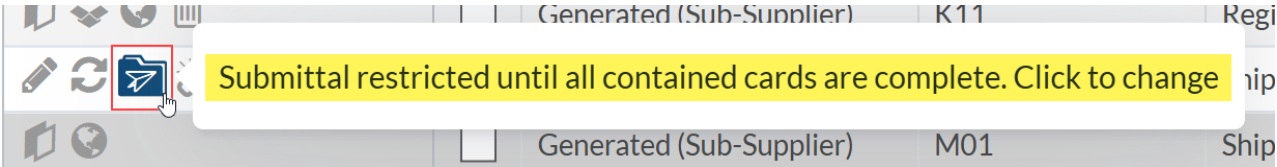

DocBoss strives to help you avoid errors – as such, we don't show the compilations in the outbound area until all documents are complete (by default). If you wish to submit the TOC before all the documents have been fully approved, there is an icon under the "actions" area in the project document list. Click the folder icon located under the actions column.

Note: The Compilation must first be attached to the Code.