Gain insight into each document's history

Export document status history for external reporting or audits, making your workflow transparent and accessible.

Submittal history at a glance

Review the latest incoming and outgoing submittal of each document. The submittal number, date (and more!) are provided, increasing traceability.

Automated status reports

Generate a snapshot of selected documents with a single click, including the revision number and current status of each document.

Detailed reporting

Automatically generate a detailed list of all documents on a project, including all relevant metadata and a historical overview of submittals made for each document.
